Loving Healing Press, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. D. E. West (illustrator). 213 x 211 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Ferdinand the Frog awakens one night to a very damp realization. Something doesn't feel right in his bed at all! What can the little guy do to fix the situation? Luckily for Ferdinand, he has a friend who has experienced the same thing. Ferdinand learns that potty training is all about confidence. There seems to be one huge obstacle, however. Ferdinand is afraid of the sound the toilet makes when it's flushed. In Ferdinand Uses the Potty, by Jay Tucker, our yellow frog friend faces his fear and he will encourage your child to do the same! Ferdinand Uses the Potty is wonderfully illustrated by award winning artist, D.E. West. Why parents need Ferdinand Uses the Potty Punishment doesn't work, encouragement does work Straightforward potty training advice written in a fun format Ferdinand's story will encourage your child to face his or her potty training fears head-on. Help develop your child's love for literacy with rhyme while he or she learns one of life's most important early skills Acclaim for Ferdinand Uses the Potty Ferdinand Uses the Potty is a book that gives a fresh and humorous look at the topic of potty training for young children. Children will enjoy learning that their thoughts and feelings about becoming a big kid are normal and real. Parents and children alike will delight in the amusing dialog between Ferdinand and his friend. This book will give parents the opportunity to laugh with their child and discuss how their child can become toilet ready by listening to their mind and body. --Allison Zaddach, M.E., Reading Education and educator of...
