

Service: A Love Story

By David Monster

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm.

Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .SERVICE (WGA Registration #1618855) By David Monster SERVICE is a true-to-life love story between two young men: George and Steven. George is raised on his Grandmother's estate, after his parents are killed by a drunk driver, when he's just a baby. It is an environment of constant mourning. His Grandmother can not recover from her daughter's death. Somehow, George has become a happy, very pleasant young man, in spite of the deep, dark emptiness eternal grief has instilled in him. Love is nothing but pain and suffering, which isn't a big problem for him, as he hasn't experienced it. He starts writing as a way to figure out the world. It's his only emotional release. Half the story is told through excerpts from his personal Journal. He is poetic and brilliant, but often-times way off base. The other half of the story is told through narrative - just the facts. George is sent to a boarding school, when his Grandmother realizes that her upbringing is a disservice. That's...
