Reviews

A whole new eBook with a brand new point of view. It is definitely simplistic but shocks in the 50 percent of the publication. I am just pleased to explain how this is the greatest ebook i have read during my very own daily life and could be the best ebook for possibly.

OCLC Number: (OCOLOC)38953330 Subject: Research and development contracts, Government -- United States -- Evaluation. Excerpt: . . . Chapter 1 Introduction IBM We interviewed a number of experts, including a former Vice President ) Director, a former NSF for Research and National Science Foundation ( Executive Director of the Manufacturing Forum, a former Associate Director of the White House Office of Science and Technology Policy, the Director of the Special Projects Office for the Army Research Laboratory, and the former Chief Financial Officer for Apple Computer. We also conducted six teleconferences with company officials who were typically at the director level. We interviewed representatives of General Electric, Lucent Technologies ( formerly Bell Labs ), Dow Chemical, , and Microsoft Corporation. These companies spent IBM Eastman-Kodak, R and D from 5 billion to 800 million on in 1995. We chose companies having R and D among the largest total budgets, in terms of dollars spent, because we believed that their experiences would be the most relevant to the needs of the federal government. R and D spending and output Our work also covered the available data on indicators provided by the leading data-gathering organizations in this OECD NSF IRI field - the, , and the Industrial Research Institute ( ). Our OECD included participation in an conference collaboration with the on science and technology indicators. Throughout the course of this work, we also interviewed the NSF staff responsible for publishing the Science and Engineering Indicators. We performed our audit work from June 1996 through February 1997 in accordance with generally accepted government auditing standards. Page 13 GAO RCED-97-91 Measuring Performance This...
