Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Theodore Parker Anniversaries of Birth and Death: Celebrated in Chicago, November 13-20, 1910 The following, with unimportant modifications, is the letter which was sent to about one hundred and seventy representative men and women in Chicago. About one hundred said Yes (see following call, page 15), while twenty-four said No, leaving some forty-six unanswered. The letters received were, of course, personal and confidential, but the spirit that characterized the entire correspondence was so significant that we venture to give some extracts of the letters which are the more significant because written without any idea of publicity, and which, when printed, are the more significant when removed from the personalities involved. The few who said No, represented as much fellowship as the many who said Yes. The following samples will be read with interest: Dear Mr. -: I am wondering whether you would be willing to lend your name to the following invitation. Of course, it would carry with it no obligation of work other than that of good will, setting forth the temper of our city and the manner of men we depend on. I am asking a score or more of prominent citizens, lay and clerical, men and women, and your name belongs in such a list, according to my thinking. Very cordially yours, Jenkin Lloyd Jones.
