O. , 2006. LC Number: KF26 . L27347 2006 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)70284680 Subject: Mathematics -- Study and teaching -- Government policy -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 11 UCE Mr. L. It requires 3 years of math and 3 years of science. Unfortunately, we only have 22 States that do that. Senator I. We moved, in the college prep diplomas in high SAKSON school now, we have moved to 4 years of math required for acceptance into the university system. But my reason for mentioning that is it is going to take the sustained commitment on qualified teachers to accomplish the goals Lamar is trying to accomplish and all of us are trying to accomplish. Second, and this is a little bit offbeat, but I mentioned this to Senator Alexander and I want to mention it to you, and I have actually furthered my development of this idea, Lamar, since I talked to you about it. In reality, and I will use my State as an example, the difficulty in Advanced Placement instruction accessibility to students is not just the number of teachers, but it is also the number of teachers who are willing to live and reside in many places in the United States because they are rural, because they are long distances and those types of things. I think we are fooling ourselves dramatically if we think those 70, 000 math and science teachers are going to go to work in some remote, yet beautiful areas of our country. But to that end, there is a demonstrated program in the United...
