Excerpt from A Sermon, Delivered at Bath, June 27, 1849, Before the Maine Missionary Society: At Its Forty-Second Anniversary Jacob was third in the illustrious line from Abraham to Christ; and his name is often used in the Old Testament scriptures to designate the Church - the chosen people of God. There is a propriety in retaining this use of his name under the gospel. In some respects he is as striking a type of the Christian Church as he was of the Jewish. Jacob stood in the direct line from the promise to the coming of Christ. The Church stands in the direct line from his coming to his final triumph; and forms another and brighter part of the same mighty chain of agencies which is to hold back the world from wreck, draw it to Christ, and bind it to his throne. God covenanted with Jacob, and remembered all the words of his covenant; so He has a covenant with the church, ordered in all things and sure. Jacob wrestled with the Angel till the...
