I felt that my task was incomplete, and that the influence of these developments on education was equally important. An opportunity is now offered to consider this influence. Beginning with a review of the conditions which have so impressed me, as the only way by which I can emphasize the importance of the events through which we are now passing, I would give you an engineers idea of the duties of a university in this new epoch. The early development of the human race has been divided into ethnical periods, representing successive conditions of savagery and barbarism, which culminated in civilization. Students of this subject recognize three periods of savagery, followed by three periods of barbarism. With the use of fire man passed from his lowest condition into the second period and acquired a power the uses of which are not yet fully developed. With the invention of the primitive form of projectile, the bow and arrow, he entered the third period. With pottery, and the accessories which went with it, he passed from savagery to barbarism. By the domestication of animals he added the strength of the brute creation to that of his own body. With the manufacture of iron the last of the barbarous periods was entered. About...
