While reading this book it is easy for one to feel as though they are having a fireside chat with the Heavenly Father concerning the condition and position of one s heart. Excellent job! Pastor Delores Bell Reformation Ministry Dear Sister Beverly, Words from the Heart is going to touch the lives of all that read your book. God has seen your tears and felt the core of your being as you ve written truly from your heart it shall bring deliverance and set the captives free because of your obedience. I loved all of the poems and words of exhortation, but especially the poem on Daddy as the ministry God has given me Mothers Informing Mothers, is the essence of mothers being delivered after sadly experiencing the pain of being without their fathers. If men would only understand and feel the heartbeat of God, on...
