Meandering Trail Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 240 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.6in.Richard Purcell was an openly gay Franciscan priest who died in 2011 of Lou Gehrigs disease. Although he had irreverent views of the Catholic Church, Purcell was widely known for his spiritual insights and his service to the poor. He lived as a true Franciscan, who garnered much of his spirituality from his two decades of work with Native Americans in Arizona. Purcells final years were spent in San Francisco, where he ran a homeless shelter for men with AIDS. Although Purcell eventually became completely paralyzed, the peace and joy he exhibited throughout his illness were highly contagious. In this book, Susan Casslan, one of Purcells caregivers in his final years, documents his journey. The book touches on healing from grief, the reconciling of sexuality with spirituality, and gives an insiders view San Francisco history and culture, especially of the Inner Mission District where Purcell lived. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
